REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to show or fairly suggests a electronic device for playing a hand of a card game and a method for playing an electronic video poker game as set forth in independent claims 11, 17, 27, 37, 42, 44 and 47. Specifically, the electronic device comprises a first data structure for storing data representing each playing card of the deck of cards; a processor including means for randomly arranging the playing card data into a random serial order, the processor, in response to prompting, selects and displays from the first data structure data representing number of cards selected in order from the arranged data inventory to define an initial holding; a control device for completing the initial holding according to the rules by replacing at least one card of the initial holding or selecting additional cards; the processor selects and displays from the first data structure data representing each replacement or additional cards selected in order from the arranged data to define a final outcome for the hand of play, the processor displays data corresponding to the remaining constituency of the deck data depleted of the displayed card data, and further displays data that the depletion has eliminated a final outcome, and determines the final outcome and issues an award for a winning outcome.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
